

Make Your Vote Count this By-Election!

On June 26, Toronto will be electing a new Mayor. According to Daily Bread Food Bank's latest Click/Hear report, food bank clients want the new Mayor to prioritize:

Wondering who to vote for this mayoral by-election? Here's what to look for in candidates' platforms:

Affordable Housing

- Do they plan to build deeply affordable rental units and supportive housing?
- Do they plan to protect tenants from evictions?
- Do they plan to improve programs and services for people experiencing homelessness?

Food Access and Affordability

- Do they plan to fully fund a robust Poverty Reduction Strategy to address the root cause of food insecurity?
- Do they plan to support community food security initiatives by ensuring access to space and sustainable funding?
- Do they plan to support student nutrition programs?

Public Transit

- Do they plan to reverse TTC service cuts?
- Do they plan to lower TTC fares for low-income residents?
- Do they plan to ensure equitable access to transit services across all Toronto neighborhoods, including the inner suburbs?

See you at the polls! Learn how to cast your ballot at: dailybread.ca/vote